

WORLD RELIGIONS

MINI-SEMINAR

Presented by Sr. Nancy Dawson OSU

Ursuline Center, 4280 Shields Road, Canfield 44406

Oct. 8, Oct. 15, Oct. 22, and Oct. 29, 2014 @ either 11:30AM or 6:30PM

The daily news is full of stories of brutal oppression, violence and war. Often times the combatants cite their religion as the rationale for their actions. On his recent arrival in Albania, a country where Muslims and Christians live in peaceful coexistence, Pope Francis denounced how religion has been "perverted" to justify violence. Pope Francis said, "Let no one consider themselves to be the 'armor' of God while planning and carrying out acts of violence and oppression!" The more we know of about other religions, their practices and real beliefs, the more peaceful our world will be. The October 8th seminars will focus on Islam

Sr. Nancy Dawson, Executive Director of The Ursuline Center and adjunct instructor of World Religions for Youngstown State University will offer a four-week class on World Religions at The Ursuline Center in Canfield. Each seminar will consider the History, Practices, Culture and Teaching of a major world religion. This is an opportunity to learn the real facts and how we can peacefully coexist and appreciate each other's differences. The dates are: Oct. 8, Oct. 15, Oct. 22, and Oct. 29, 2014. Each topic will be offered two times: 11-12:30 p.m. and 6:30-8 p.m. We ask for a donation of $10 per class. The fee for all four classes paid upfront will be $35. Contact Ursuline Associate Eileen W. Novotny with questions or to register -- eileenwnovotny63@gmail.com or 330-540-1986. Registration is not required but appreciated so that we can plan accordingly and have materials for you.
